

Full-text Journal Access Scheme

Please print. Full details are required or request cannot be completed. This form can also be filled and submitted electronically.

The College offers its Members a vast array of e-journals and databases.

There are no additional charges for College Members. College students who are not Members pay a fee of $100.00 per annum for access.

Sourcing many of the most respected, highly cited, peer-reviewed journals in their disciplines, the vendors provide access to databases and e-journals in nursing, medicine, psychology, health business and other related fields, many published on behalf of learned societies and colleges.

Lists of titles are available from the College website, www.nursing.edu.au.

Access to the Collection provides:

- thousands of articles in full text formats
- table of contents alerts
- search facility
- EBSCO includes some e-books
- facility to print, save or email results
- personal account creation.

Registration Details

I hereby agree to abide by the conditions of use and declare that I will not disclose password information to any other person or persons.

Name Membership no.

Address

..... Postcode

Telephone Email

Please return completed form to Graham Spooner: gspooner@nursing.edu.au

If not sending electronically, please return completed form to:

Graham Spooner
Library Manager
The College of Nursing
Locked Bag 3030
BURWOOD NSW 1805
or fax to: (02) 9745 7503

Registration on the main College website is required prior to accessing the databases and e-journal collections.