

The College of Nursing creating nursing's future

Professional evening for nursing students

The College of Nursing invites you to a Professional Evening

'Places to go, people to meet'

The College of Nursing, 14 Railway Parade, Burwood NSW
Tuesday 23 June 2009, Registration from 5.30pm, Presentations 6.00pm–8.00pm

This seminar will provide new nurses and nursing students with the opportunity to hear from nurse leaders and discuss with their peers some of the current issues impacting on practice in the public and private health systems. The program aims to profile and describe transition programs that support and guide newly graduated registered nurses in the first year of their practice; both the public and private sectors will be explored as the significant opportunities that new nurses face are explored.
